Jerusalem & Holy Land 1:10,000/1:225,000

Synopsis

Jerusalem is an ancient city and also a religious centre, revered by Christians and Muslims alike. Lan and I visited the city in January and updated minor changes to the old walled city. We also wanted to change the regional map, but not its coverage or content, so we changed its name to Holy Land, on the assumption that the market for this map rests with pilgrims and those following well-known Biblical place names the Sea of Galilee, Bethlehem, Nazareth etc. On our trip, we also discovered Agamemnon, which I'd believed to be mythological, and the crusader fortress of Acre, on the coast. Israel/Palestine offers so much more than 'just' Jerusalem that a map of this nature is essential for anyone visiting this part of the world.
