Customer Reviews

Jack Canfield and Mark Victor Hansen are co-founders of Chicken Soup for the Soul. Canadian Laura Robinson is a famous game inventor, actress and musician.

Lots of warm stories regarding hockey and the essence of being on a rink (outdoor and indoor) that are told from everyday people-point of views and those of NHL players past and present. A humbling read that reminds you of the good times, even if you didn't share in the same ones.

I purchased this book for my hockey loving husband with some hesitation. Even though he's not a big reader, he loved it! There were stories from not only minor league hockey players, but some NHL players as well. What a great idea from Chicken Soup, thanks for giving my husband a reason to read more!

Love that it gets my hockey loving son to read!

Great

My grandson loves the book and it has some great hockey stories.

We read from this book each night and our young, hockey playing son loves it! The stories illustrate great values and offer important life lessons.

My daughter loved it

Bought this for my 16 yr old grandson and he loved it.
