Baby loves the bright colors and the touch and feel of this book.

This book has simple easy graphics and if you are like me you make up your own words. My baby likes the touch and feel books. I like the textures she has put in for some of the animals. Trust me I have about every animal texture book out there and my baby likes this pretty well.

This book is a "touch and feel" experience for small children rather than Ms. Katz's other books which have a flap to lift to reveal a story element underneath. The book has the same brightly colored pictures that our grandchildren enjoy and the element of the tactile experience is almost as much fun as lifting the flap.

My son loves her lift the flap books and is pretty fond of this one. The chicks should be touch/feel but they aren't so that's a little weird, but overall he wants to read it over and over again.

This is my 9 month old son's favorite book. He loves the textures and reaches for this book every time we go to the book shelf. I need to buy another one for daycare because he has taken to flipping through the pages as he falls asleep.

Love her books! Great for little hands and curious minds.
