This is the children's audio version. It is only 4 hours and is a shortened version of the adult audio version which is about double the listening time. Was excellent and good for adults if you don't want a long audio book. Great story and gives highlights of Tim Tebow's life growing up in his family and experiences that shaped him, his life and experiences in the athletic world and attitudes towards accomplishing things in life. Excellent and motivational!!!!!!!

My third grader and I read some together every night before bed. We really enjoyed it! It helps to be a football fan. I would sometimes have a hard time picturing the football plays Tim describes in the later chapters, but my son, who plays and watches football year-round thoroughly got it and loved it! I, as a mom, loved the life and character lessons that Tim shares along the way.

We accidentally ordered the Young Reader's Edition like many others, but that just means we bought two copies of the book! LOL My husband is reading the regular version, and I read this one. This one was definitely written with younger readers in mind, but by no means did it take away from the storyline and impactful life of this young man. If you ordered this one by mistake, take that as God's cue to give it to a young reader in your life!

"A young man of conviction", arrives on center stage, and has America totally baffled. He can't possibly be serious in his love for God, but HE IS.....he lets people know that God has blessed him with an ability, and he performs as best as he is able, to the glory of God. What you see in Tebow, is what he really is, a man of God who just happens to play football...very well in fact.

Im a football fan, so I wanted to get to know Tebow from all the publicity I had heard about his being a christian, as well as a determined quarterback. I was very much impressed at the adversity this young man has gone through in being made fun of because he loves God and shows it, and also because his hearts desire is to be a quarterback. He comes from a wonderful family. A family he is proud of, as he should be. I greatly admire him as well as his family after reading this book. It also has alot of football info on games he has played in it as well.

My nine year old needed a book for a book report , it was a great book & was a positive read Tim is a great role model.

Tim Tebow is honest and caring in this book. I read the adult version too, and both books are a great read for people who are striving to achieve Christ-like qualities. Tim does a great job of not sugar-coating his life, and as a Christian parent, I am thrilled to have a quality book for my kids to read. Tebow gets so much criticism for being authentic. Not from this reader or her family. We wish you all the best Tim--praying for your continued success on and off the field!

Where is Tim Tebow now???? We who were cheering for him are wondering. I guess the rest of the "boys" on the teams felt shrunken in his shadow. very sad. Not much to be said for their sportsmanship. Lyn
