The Step-Spinsters

Synopsis

Once upon a time, in a land far, far away... (actually, in Medieval France, to be exact) there lived Cinderella's stepsisters, Fredegonde the tall and Javotte the small. They wake up the morning after the legendary ball to learn that they each still have a chance to be the bride - all they have to do is make their feet fit into that tricky slipper. Alas, these two damsels under stress never quite seem to fit in anywhere. But that doesn't stop them from wishing and hoping as they set upon a quest for grooms and grandeur of their own.

Customer Reviews

This was an interesting take on a common story. The reader must immediately try to work out if the step-family is evil or if Cinderella is really the evil (or perhaps just snobbish) one. The sense of humour won't be for everyone, but I think it will hit the mark with most. I'd suggest you go into this story knowing that it's an odd retelling, expect some fun events and some adventure, then you should get a lot out of it.

I won this book through the Kindle Scout Program. This book does not disappoint. Wonderfully written. Fantastic story. I really enjoyed it.

An interesting twist on an old time fairy tale. This had me laughing out loud and getting a lot of strange stares....but it was worth it.

This is the best book I have ever read. I am recommending it to all my friends!! It's witty and the characters are the best!! If you are looking for a fun escape with exceptional writing, this is the book for you. This is a must read book.

Fascinating retelling, which really has me wondering if the author will do any other fairy tales. Very enjoyable read.

An interesting, imaginative spin on the classic fairytale.

I wasn't sure what to expect when starting this book, but it quickly became a page turner. This is a very interesting take on the Cinderella story and unlike any I had read before. I highly recommend it!

I really enjoyed this modern yet medieval retelling of the Cinderella story. The characters were well developed and lots of fun, a nice change from the damsel in distress story. Highly recommended!
