Customer Reviews

Great comic reader. Our 5-year-old son loves it (to the point that he sneaks it in bed and reads it with a flashlight). He's very into Legos and Batman, so this is right up his alley. It's written in a legit comic book format, not a picture book.

My 3 year old and I love these comics. Light sarcastic undertone. Cute storyline. He's able to watch the storyline progress through the speaking bubbles. And we can still make predictions, connections, etc. Keep them coming!

My son loves this book. He is in first grade. This is a book he can read successfully on his own, I already see his confidence growing. I have caught him a few times reading this book on his own and laughing to himself. If you have a young reader who likes superheroes (and Legos) this is a good choice.

For those kids who like to read a more comic book style this would be good for them. My son is still a bit young so this was more difficult for him. The letters are very small and as with comic book form it can be hard to follow for unfamiliar kiddos.

I would buy this again and again. Kids love superhero comics and the reading level is appropriate for elementary schoolers.

Our 5 year old was so excited to get this book for Christmas. He is a big lego fan and is also really into super heroes. The price is reasonable and we have read it again. Our son is already asking for more in the series. I would recommend this for other people with young children.

Gave all our nieces and nephews comics at Christmas and the youngest who was 5 just loved the. Searched high and low for comics that are kid friendly for a new reader that is actually in a comic book style not a picture book. Gave this to him for his birthday and he loved it!

My 5 year old loves these books. Great to help them get excited about reading a book if they're super hero fans
