Customer Reviews

I liked the various interesting stories in this book. It's one of those great coffee table or bathroom books that I bet people would pick up and glance at and then go buy for their own library (that's what I did). The book is a durable hard-cover with a dust jacket and the print is easy to read. I had only a couple issues with the book - first the pictures often have nothing to do with the story. When they're talking about a certain cemetery, it would be nice to get a picture of the actual cemetery and not a random drawing, piece of artwork or stock photo of another location. Also, most of the stories don't really go very in-depth and usually end with some cliff-hanger like, "Do the ghosts of these people really haunt this place?" I expected Jack Palance to pop out and say, "Believe it or not." I just felt they could have gone a little further with each story - maybe interviews with people who had seen stuff, historical records or something else more investigative. But that's my personal opinion. Overall, a very interesting book about some odd stories in the state. Perfect coffee table material and fun to read around Halloween.

Bought this as a joke for a friend. It's actually a really cool book. My friend loved it & even took it to a party to share.

These books provide great fun ways to tour and learn the off beat history about your local state!

This is my go-to item for group competitive gift exchanges and it's always a hit. It's fun to read and very interesting. If your job or family does a group gift exchange, getting a "Weird" book for your state is sure to be the item everyone is after.

Grandson loves the book and wants to try and visit these places this year.....

Not really what I was looking for, has more haunted places in it. not quite what I was looking for

I love this book. Very entertaining. Very fast shipping also.

I've lived in Illinois for all of my adult life and never heard of any of these things. This book provided well written tales of Illinois weirdness! It's fun to read!
