Customer Reviews

Concise and yet rather much complete. Jersey is not a large island, you can't make a large book out of it without straying outside the travel genre. This little gem packs along extremely well, has a comprehensive overview with some useful maps, and gets the job done. It's difficult to find a guide that concentrates on just Jersey rather than the "Channel Islands" as a whole. This is something of a monopolistic niche, but you get what you need here.
