Customer Reviews

This little book is a treasure of helpful ways a teenager can evaluate her circumstances. If she decides to keep her child, Shands forthrightly explains the responsibilities involved and the loss of freedom she may encounter. There are detailed lists of purchase items, baby schedules, and even choosing child care in order to finish schooling. I think this book deals with a difficult situation with gentleness and compassion. If I were a teen again and I read this book early into my dating years, I would certainly stop and think about my sexual activity! I thought it so good after I read it, I purchased one for our local hospital.
