Customer Reviews

Martha Day has compiled this delightful collection of recipes. Her many other publications include Cooking for Christmas, Baking, and Afternoon Teas, Homemade Bakes and Party Cakes. She is a keen home cook and enjoys baking for friends and family at her house in the country.

I was disappointed because not a lot of recipes. I partly blame myself because I didn't notice how many pages this book had. Will make sure I notice this detail next time. I've purchased other books for less money that had more information about different types of tea (this had only a few) and many more recipes. I'd recommend looking elsewhere.

I have actually used this book for 3 separate parties that I threw for my friends. The recipes in here are very well explained and includes great pictures to go with each one. I am very pleased with how fast it arrived and the excellent condition the book is in.

We're working our way through the recipes - so far they have been quite good. Was surprised by the ginger tea bread.

Was a gift to a friend but i loved it and will buy a copy for my home. :-)

Another great tea party book to had to my collections with some wonderful suggestions

Great book for a tea party
