Customer Reviews

I spotted this Lonely Planet guide for the Cape at the library. Using it during a long weekend at the Cape made me realize I needed to own it. It contains a wealth of useful, interesting information about what to see and do--and every restaurant evaluation from it was accurate. This guidebook is worth every penny for a family or a couple traveling alone.

it's 30 days today and I haven't gotten my book! I've never had a problem before. I contacted the company and they said it can take this long...
