MARY POPE OSBORNE and NATALIE POPE BOYCE are sisters who grew up on army posts all over the world. Mary is the author of more than 50 acclaimed books for children. Natalie has worked as a children's librarian and as a teacher of English and E.S.L. SAL MURDOCCA has been illustrating and writing books for children for many years. He has illustrated every book in the Magic Tree House fiction series and the Magic Tree House Research Guide nonfiction companions.

These are simple, but they contain a fair amount of information. Interesting for kids. I'm not as crazy about the Magic Treehouse stories, but I really like the research guides.

The Magic Tree House Books and Fact Trackers are the best elementary school books I have come across. The facts that Mary Pope Osborne gives are fun and informative for a 5-9 year old. My son and I have read the entire collection. It was fun for my son to learn about Abraham Lincoln. That is what Mary Pope Osborne does in her books...she makes learning fun.

Magic Treehouse books are wonderful! I love the fact trackers and how they teach real historical truth in a fun way "that also coincides with an adventure from one of the books they just read! My nine year old boy loves these, even my 11 year old likes them...even though she can finish one in an hour or two...and now my seven year old son has started reading them. Great, safe, fun adventures through history!

The Fact Trackers that go with the Magic Tree House series are wonderful! We have found that when we read these after we've finished the corresponding Magic Tree House book, the kids are eager to listen to more facts. It raises questions and we have interesting discussions too. Our kids are four and six and love these books as much as the series. Thank you, Ms. Osborne (your sister too) for these wonderful books!

Great item as described and fast service.

Excellent information. Easy to follow. Well written for kids to teach them and hold their attention. Good recommendation for kids.

What can be said about books that are such wonderful novels and then also provide supporting teaching information. My Grandson lives in Germany, and is a dual citizen, but through these books he knows more about America than many Kids living in America do! And, he enjoys the research books as much as the stories and relates to them beautifully.

She has been hooked to this series since she was 7 and has read them all. She especially loves the non-fiction companions. So do I, nothing beats letting them learn from a fun and educational book.
