The Language of Composition is the first textbook built from the ground up to help students succeed in the AP English Language course. Written by a team of experts with experience in both high school and college, this text focuses on teaching students the skills they need to read, write, and think at the college level. With practical advice and an extensive selection of readings — including essays, poetry, fiction, and visual texts — The Language of Composition helps students develop the key skills they must master to pass the course, to succeed on the AP Exam, and to prepare for a successful college career. Revised based on feedback from teachers across the country, the second edition promises to be an even better resource for the AP Language classroom.

Customer Reviews

A unique team of authors who are AP English Language specialists. Renee H. Shea is a university professor who has directed freshman English programs; Lawrence Scanlon and Robin Dissin Aufses are English department chairs at high schools where they also teach AP English. Both Renee Shea and Lawrence Scanlon have been involved with the AP program for many years as faculty consultants and workshop leaders for both the Language and Literature courses."

This was a gift to my daughter, and she loved it !

thanks

Wish I had copies for all my AP English students.

Nice book. Well packaged.

That's what i was looking for , but little expensive.

Great if your going to rent it.

Very Helpful.

Because my school went digital, I had to order my own copy of the excellent text book. Worth every penny! Thank you, Ms Shea! I am forever indebted to you.
