Bart Of Darkness (The Book Of Bart 2)

Synopsis

Bart used to be a demon, but he left that all behind to forge his own path. Become a rogue for the ages. So far, that hasn't gone according to plan. Without Hell to call home, the ex-demon's evil is wearing off, leaving him with an identity crisis made worse by tagging along on Heaven-sanctioned missions with his goody two shoes angel-in-training friend, Samantha. It's enough to stress out even the best dressed of ex-demons. So what's a guy who rocks horns to do but pull a prank? But when it goes sideways, Bart and Samantha uncover a cult that's killing children and sucking up their souls. The ex-demon seizes this opportunity to get back some of that old mojo, because there's an unspoken rule between Heaven and Hell: Don't mess with children. Ever. As Bart unleashes his demonic fury to stop the killings, he stumbles onto the cult's higher purpose: Create a Paradise on Earth, thereby upsetting the balance between Heaven and Hell. Bart wouldn't mind seeing Heaven knocked down a peg or two, but without that balance, the world will fall into darkness. For an ex-demon with conscience issues, that can't happen.

Customer Reviews

Hill really built on the momentum from book one and made this read even more fun. I can't wait to see to see what happens next.

Funny and filling. A good read from the first page to the last. A ride through heaven and hell all the way through.

When you put a rogue demon, an almost Angel, a ghost, and a bell hound together you get an awesome adventure!

Funny and good plot. I found Bart a great and funny main character. I liked the class of Bart and humor. Can't wait for next book.

Another excellent installment in the book of Bart. It had plenty of action and some parts had me literally laughing out loud. Excellent series by a new author

I tried through book one. There were a few amusing parts that made me keep giving second chances despite how pathetic Bart is. But halfway through this book I'm done. You have such a great premise and it's completely wasted by the fact that your main character is not only one of the dumbest characters ever but weak as all get out despite formerly being some high and mighty demon. Also you clearly didn't bother to reread your first book since a lot of the backstory doesn't match up... weak
