Susan Hagen Nipp received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in music and a minor in education from Whitworth College, in Spokane, Washington. She has taught high school English, and music on the elementary school level. She lives in Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, with her husband Charlie. They have two children. Pamela Conn Beall received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in music and a minor in education from Oregon State University. After college, she became an elementary school music teacher in the Portland area. she currently resides in Lake Oswego, Oregon, with her husband Ron. They have four children.

If you want to widen your children's horizons, this is the book for you. There are 43 songs from as many different countries, and almost as many different languages. Each song is sung in native and English language. With included maps, data on each country, various letters (Indian, Chinese, Arabic), and a sing-along cassette or CD it's not only fun but also something to learn from. So, where is number 2?

Super Duper! This one is part of the older version which uses REAL instruments. The new ones have that jingle bells computer doorbell accompaniment, So Awful. I know real musicians cost money but it is so important that kids get to hear real instruments, real singers without auto-tune and chipped drum beats. They get enough of that from the Youtube that their parents let them watch. Bring Back Real, Authentic Elemental Music.

Great for my co op Geography course. The kids love it.

Purchased this CD almost 20 years ago for my grandchildren. I just bought 5 more to share with family and friends with small grandchildren and for my daughter who teaches 5th graders. Great activities and songs for children of all ages.

Great cd! Kids ages 1-8 will love it. Is a lo-ong cd with l ots of fun songs. It's great to hear the song first in the native language and then English. We kept getting this cd out from the library and finally bought a copy of our own.

Had this when the kids were young - very happy that I could get it again.

This is my daughter's favorite when she was in pre school and kindergarten. I'm getting another one for my baby niece!

I played the cassette over and over as a kid, so I was delighted to be able to find it on CD when I had my own child. These songs are so catchy that I even sing along as an adult!
