National Geographic Magnificent Ocean: A Coloring Book

Synopsis

Intricate and soothing, this elegant coloring book for adults invites creative people of all ages to dive into the colorful world of oceans, using the power of their own imaginations. With 50 intricate black and white illustrations, printed on perforated pages that will render them collectible, users will color and embellish the scales of an ocean triggerfish, intricate anemone, and the diamond pattern of sea turtles' shells. Armed with artist's tools, they will enhance the beauty of coral reefs and explore the majesty of the ocean's floors. Fans of National Geographic and newcomers to the coloring world alike will welcome this creative and relaxing journey into our natural world.

Illustrator JUSTIN POULTER specializes in hand lettering and illustration. He started his career at an award-winning studio in London. Later, he headed up his own studio in his hometown of Cape Town, South Africa. As a freelance illustrator he has created art for clients including Google, Vans, Nike, Coca Cola, Bonnier Publishing, Redbull, and Men's Health. He now lives in London with his girlfriend.

Not much variety in images. I was expecting the pages to have drawings like on the cover.

However, the inside pages have much larger designs and many are just the same animal repeated in different positions on the same page. One good thing is that the paper is nice.

lots of details

Nice drawings that can be expanded. I'd recommend to fortify pages with gesso if using water/oil mediums. The possibilities of creating a personal master piece(s) are endless. A lovely addition to your coloring books collection.

Utterly gorgeous illustrations, so beautiful- this will be my go-to gift for Christmas and birthdays!

Bought this as a gift and the recipient loves it!

very nice
