Customer Reviews

I can't review this because it was delivered to the address that I gave but was in the middle of a move for the recipient. Before they could retrieve it, it disappeared (was reported as put in mailbox--mailbox empty). I'm sure it would have been a great little gift but will have to buy again in order to know :-)

We love all the DK books, and these little board books ("touch and feel") are so perfect for little fingers and minds that can only handle very short stories. Highly recommended!

My daughter is really into touch and feel books and this particular one is one of the better ones. What I like most about this book is that there is something to touch on EACH page, not just some like other books have. The colors and photos are bright and fun to look at and each page teaches colors, counting, and has other animals to identify as well. I also like that there are more pages than the average touch and feel books so you really get your money's worth too! This is a super cute book to read and your baby or toddler will love discovering new textures to touch. My daughter loves this book and it's a must have for every baby and toddler's book collection. I HIGHLY recommend the purchase of this book for your child or as a gift as well!

Every time I open this book I notice another detail that is textured. My 6 month old loves running his little fingers through the fur. Additionally, the cover is great! it is thick and covered with a vinyl type material, which is awesome because he is able to put it in his mouth without it being destroyed after just a couple of explorational chew sessions. So far it appears to be a real sturdy book, aside from being read and chewed on it has been used as a banging toy against the table and floor and my son has done lots of tugging on it; there are still no signs of wear.

Cute book to start out with . My grandson loves touch and feel books

Cute but definitely for the infant set.

Cute and excellent service

A little short and not much written. Its a good book for 6 month to 1.5 years. Just 3 pages of touch and feel really.
