Customer Reviews

Tesia Blackburn is passionate about the formal tools of art: line, shape, color, form, texture and light. She often works in series, taking inspiration from music, architecture and the world around her. As Tesia sees it, the goal of her work is to capture the harmony and beauty in seemingly simple elements and reflect them back to the viewer. Built up of many, many layers of paint with an eye to translucent color and luminosity, her work reflects a thirst for strong design. Tesia has been a working artist in the San Francisco Bay area for over 25 years. In 2000 she was hired by Golden Artist Colors as the Golden Working Artist in San Francisco. Her work is collected both locally and internationally with patrons as far away as Tokyo. Tesia was born in Shreveport, Louisiana, and after many life travels, currently resides in San Francisco. Visit Tesia online at www.AcrylicDiva.com

Very useful ideas, how-tos and foundational learning about painting with acrylics and mixed media. Lots of rich content including ideas about limiting and mixing color to where to start. I enjoyed the supportive tone and broad experience that Tesia brought to the content. All the photos and images provided useful ideas that I return to again and again. Would definitely recommend.

Almost knowing her in person (FaceBook friends) I feel that I can pick her brain anytime I want with this book. I am so glad she started with the basics: Rules & Tools. She goes through each chapter step by step, pictures and all. Loved reading it and going back for inspiration. Thanks for writing this book!

Ms. Blackburn is full of exciting ideas. She wants you to try just about anything, to become a free-ranging artist. Lots of fun, and some things turn out quite well.

Tesia has many wonderful tips. Buy it!
