A Horse Named Bob (I Can Read! / A Horse Named Bob)

Synopsis

A Lesson in Kindness Jen can't get a horse, so she's excited when her neighbor Mrs. Gray gets an old retired horse and agrees to let Jen take care of him. But it seems that all of them need help becoming friends. This is a Level Two I Can Read! book, which means it's perfect for children learning to sound out words and sentences. It aligns with guided reading level J and will be of interest to children Pre-K to 3rd grade.

Dandi Daley Mackall loves God, children, words, and animals. Her nearly 500 books for children and grown-ups have sold more than four million copies worldwide. She won the ECPA Christian Book Award for Best Children's Book 2015 and multiple Mom's Choice Awards, as well as ALA Best Book, NY Public Library Top Pick, Children's Book Council Award of Excellence, and the Helen Keating Ott Award for Contributions to Children's Literature. Her novel My Boyfriends' Dogs is now a Hallmark Movie. Dandi writes from rural Ohio, where she lives with her family, including horses, dogs, cats, and an occasional squirrel, deer, or raccoon.

Wonderful short story about a girl and her fulfilled dream for a horse. Good spiritual lesson as well. Love these Bob the Horse books.

My 4 year old grandson was really absorbed in the story when I read this to him. Needless to say, I had to read this to him again and again so it's a hit

What better way to learn to read than reading about your favorite thing! Horses! Definitely a keeper!

This book is great for my daughters. It is easy enough for my 5 and 6 year olds but still enjoyable for my 8 year old. It is consistent with the values we are trying to instill in our children. I especially like Jen's dad's instruction to be nice to Mrs. Gray even when she isn't nice back. I would recommend this book and plan to purchase the rest of the series.

This is my 3yo's new favorite book! It does make two references to prayer and Jesus, which I wasn't expecting but overall, I like it.

I bought this book for my 6 year old granddaughter because she LOVES horses. She LOVED this story, it kept her attention and the pictures were well drawn. This story is for all children.

Nice story. It was for my boy and I did not know the story was about a girl so he did not like it even though he loves horses

Love love love this book!
