My daughter LOVES this book! She is too young to enjoy the tracing the shapes and numbers, but she likes the shapes page with the mirror and the cut out circle. It's also large enough to high a stuffed animal behind and make it pop-through the circle on the first page. She has started to pick it off the shelf and bring it over to me. Not a lot of reading, but a lot of fun to play with and get her excited about books.

I love this book- it's another great Eric Carle work. Cute pages, with the usual brightly colored illustrations that my 2 year old loves. First page is shapes, another page has numbers, then colors and animals. It's really well done, except that for a busy book... it only has a few pages and that doesn't keep my son busy for more than a few minutes. I really wish it had more pages than just 4 or 5 that it has. Great idea though.

Gave to two one year old grandchildren.....they both love it. They sit alone and look through pages totally engaged. That's a winner!

Gave this to my 15 month old granddaughter and she absolutely loved it. She's a big reader and has lots of choices, but this one really amused her and is very sturdy.

My son is obsessed with the mirror in this book. It is perfect for a one year old who is just starting to learn about colors, shapes, sounds, and how things feel. Highly recommend to any mom who is looking for an all around book to teach their child. Note: this book was a lot larger than I had anticipated. Will not fit in a diaper bag!!!

This was my first Eric Carle purchase and can I say I am not disappointed by it the illustrations are so colorful and capture my son's attention he loves all the touchy feels on it and especially love looking in the mirror we trace the numbers he points to the pictures I say what they are or make the animal sounds sometimes he'll mimic me doing it every morning he grabs his book and we sit down and we flip through it he adores it Colorful, bright, adorable interactive book for babies. Perfect for one of the "first" books and entertaining for toddlers. Eric Carle...that says it all!

My one-year old granddaughter loves this book. There are colors, textures, numbers, and animal sounds. So much to see and do!
