Fabulous: Young Adult Romance Series

Synopsis

3 Rich Girls ~ 3 Ordinary Boys
Clean Teen Romance
Book 1 ~ Felicia
The rich daughter of a millionaire businessman, on the outside, it looks like Felicia Torrence has everything. Yet, behind the mansion walls, her fragile world is built on a stack of lies, growing larger every day. Her escape is a job at the local children's arcade. Here, she can forget her troubles for a while and watch kids be happy. No one around her needs to be any the wiser. Until, a simple ride home with fellow employee, Levi Galvis, exposes him to the truth. They have nothing in common. He's smart, hard-working, and decidedly middle class. He's also stubborn, a trait that initially makes her angry, but soon proves to be her only way out.

Book 2 ~ Ariel
Ariel Veich grew up in a billionaire's world, the Veich family name well-known in upper social circles. Influence, esteem, and prestige, all things she's used to. As well as opportunists, people only after her friendship for what they can get out of it. She's learned to protect herself and keep her distance from onlookers. Until she meets Joey Randolph. They're from two different worlds, yet with one unexpected kiss, he tears down the wall she's spent so much time building. When what she knows about herself comes crumbling down as well, it could be that this new love of her life isn't the boy of her dreams after all.

Book 3 ~ Zoia
Zoia Fisht hid herself away in an ultra-modern townhome devoid of anything personal except for her many pets. With billions of dollars at her disposal, unlike other girls her age, who'd use it frivolously, she spends it salving her conscience at dozens of charity events. Kain Wayland moved to Florida from his family's Texas ranch to care for his aging grandmother, but after she passed a couple years before, made no effort to return home. He's carved a life for himself here, but maybe not a productive one. He's kept everything around him the same, refusing to move on. Introduced to Zoia through one of her rich girlfriends, he finds himself taken with her reclusive nature and shaken from his stagnancy. But their forced friendship takes a troubling turn when the walls she's erected around her heart reveal a secret that might be too huge to forget.

Customer Reviews

FELICIA by Suzanne D Williams. YA series "Fabulous" book 1 Levi can't take his eyes off of Felicia, she's working at the game center, not what he expected of someone of her caliber. Trouble with her car, and her dad wasn't going to come get her. Taking her home she tells the guard, he's her boyfriend, and would be there a lot. Warning bells, Levi isn't used to being ordered around. Compassion for her, and what was really going on in Felicia's life. His world was secure and happy, while hers was one of turmoil. He was someone she could trust. This was a powerful book of what some young people go through. The maturity of Levi, and what he saw and understood. Good book for all ages to read, and to see what one's actions are, can they help or hinder another person.

ARIEL by Suzanne D Williams series YA "Fabulous" book 2 For Ariel the life of riches, and people using her, is all she has known. Then she meets Joey, and another world has opened up, of all places at the gym. A kiss not as possession, but as a priceless person. Joey, needed to work, had bills and family to support. Levi gives him advice, to be transparent, that Ariel is looking for genuine security. Giving her what he treasures in life, sunrises and sunsets, laughter, smiles, family. This series continues with the first, of being true to yourself, opening the world you have and love. It's not in riches bought, but sharing friendship.

ZOLA by Suzanne D Williams the series YA "Fabulous" book 3 Kane an ordinary guy, who loves open skies, and country music, and didn't want to make changes. . Didn't have any use for social ladders, and debutants. Joey was his trusted friend, so here he is trying out for a part. Meeting Zola, who is wrapped up in one charity after another. He wants to read for the part in front of her, without the lights, adapting the words, for the beauty of the theatre. Something changed between them, it was his voice, she wants him to come in the evenings and read for her.

She's lonely afraid of her brother, she asks Kane " if he would take care of her ". A brother and what he was had taken a hold of her. As Kane told her, don't let something ugly mar the inside. Can two people let down the walls around them, to let others and friends in. A powerful set of three stories, not only for the YA but all will enjoy reading this set of three. Suzanne has given three stories that have a lot of messages to them. Given ARC for my voluntary review and my honest opinion.
