Kamini and Kirk Thomas met while touring the ancient temples of Southeast Asia and have done much research into Eastern spirituality and its relationship to sexual practices, including tantric sex. Kirk is a freelance journalist and illustrator. His wife Kamini, a social psychologist, has worked on numerous publications including books on tantric love, partner yoga, and sexual massage. She has lived and worked in India, learning Hindi and immersing herself in its rich and vibrant culture. She became interested in the Kama Sutra while visiting erotic sculptures at Khajuraho. Kamini and Kirk live in Bath, England.

Not really as good as I thought it would be. Great imaging, a few good positions to try but seem to be just variations of each other. Would be great for someone who is inexperienced not so good for someone looking for new ideas this book is amazing! great ideas with good easy to understand descriptions. Other books were hard to understand this one is great. It takes you from setting the mood through foreplay sex and after. I love it! great book!

I thought there were a lot more positions. Good way of explaining transitional positions in a consecutive manner. Maybe there could've been a subtitle per different scenarios or situations instead of going straight to the next position. Overall though, very good guidelines for beginners.

Great book, excellent way spice things up in the bed. Some of foreplay things we found to be a bit corny, but hey different strokes for different folks.

Good guide

Wonderful book however toward the last of it it shows positions for group sex. I personally am not into that. Overall, the descriptions and instructions were very informative.
