Saving Sebastian: A Catharsis Novel (Custos Securities Series Book 3)

Synopsis

Gideon McCade--weighed down by memories of his previous life as a Navy SEAL and a CIA agent--has blood on his hands. He turns to his BDSM club, Catharsis, and Dominating submissives to get him through the daily grind of civilian life. Knowing his past is too much to inflict on a life partner, he keeps his connections brief and superficial. When his former life comes back to haunt him, his desire for revenge pulls him back into the shadows, darkening his hopes for a future in the light. Temporarily sidelining his career as a tattoo artist, Sebastian Phillips works as a composite artist for the local police department. To alleviate the inescapable burden of a congenital medical condition, he immerses himself in his art and seeks the catharsis of submission. But with life weighing heavily on his shoulders and darkness encroaching, he yearns for a contract with a Dominant that sees past the protective barriers he's erected to the vulnerable submissive within. When happenstance brings Gideon and Sebastian together, their connection is undeniable. The knowledge that they are both too damaged to form permanent bonds of love causes them to rely on an impersonal contract to fulfil their physical needs. But staying emotionally detached becomes impossible, and breaking their contract seems the only option. Will Gideon's need for vengeance and Sebastian's declining health destroy what's grown between them, or will they help each other find their way back into the light? Customer Reviews

Luna David once again did a great job in writing this book. The story of Sebastian and Gideon's journey is not your usual and typical BDSM one. Each one of them has their hardships and struggles, each one of them is stubborn in their own way. Gideon is and isn't your typical Dom. With his character, the author sowed that even a Dom is still a person, a human being that makes mistakes, suffers from heartbreak (mostly made by his own choices) and fears he is not good enough. Sebastian's story breaks your heart and while reading and beginning to better understand his point of view, you might want to throw your kindles against the wall and hate Gideon a little bit. There were times I couldn't read well because of the tears, but I couldn't hate Gideon...my heart was breaking for him too! This story might not work for everyone, but it certainly worked for me! It will surely be a re-read!

It is so hard to put into words what this book did to me. I loved it, I cried, laughed and smiled throughout it. Sebastian is a submissive and decides to visit a BDSM club only things don't go as planned. Gideon the owner of the club is made aware that something is wrong with a submissive and enters the room to put a stop to the scene. From the moment Gideon sees Sebastian he realises that he wants him as his boy. Sebastian isn't as confident with his life outside of BDSM but slowly he emerges and accepts a 6 month contract with Gideon until Sebastian's health takes a turn for the worst.

I came across this series in a MM book club on face book. I didn't know the author but liked the sound of the first two books. I read them and feel in love. I was so happy to find that the 3rd book was out. Gideon and Sebastian's story had me laughing and crying both sad and happy tears. I like can't say enough of how wonderful this series and this book really are. I can't wait for the next one. God I hope its Jackson and Sawyer's story!

When I try to gather my thoughts for a review, I try to figure out if there was something that would make me feel I need to mark down for. This story was so full of emotion, the characters so vivid, that any slight I could give it are made up for in how bright those two things are. Highly recommended.

I really enjoyed this book! I read this series in reverse order, so it was a little weird to realize a few things after the fact, but still a great read. This one was the best in the series and I'll definitely keep my eye open for the next one. A very moving, hurt/comfort read.

Saving Sebastian is emotional, heartbreaking at the same time heartwarming. Sebastian and Gideon are both struggling with their past and trying to have a D/s relationship without falling for each other. I truly just loved these two guys and their story.

Drop everything, and read this book!! It's so good! Full of deep.... loneliness, torture, longing, craving....but love finds away and brings new beginnings, meaning, family, friends.

I loved this story from start to finish. We get to see both characters grow in love and friendship with a good subplot thrown in. I hope we get another story soon.
