Customer Reviews

I absolutely love this book! Peter Cook does an excellent job to explain sleep and helps you get a better night's sleep. We tend to forget how important it is to reset and give our bodies and minds a rest. Very helpful and practical tips to fall asleep and stay asleep. What I love the most is that Peter incorporates holistic ideas like meditation, exercise, visualization and sex to get better sleep rather than promoting pills. Anyone who has trouble sleeping or thinks they can live on just a few hours of sleep needs to read this book!

I did not expect much when I got this book but I ended up staying up for hours reading it... when I was supposed to be trying to sleep, go figure haha. I got a lot of great information out of this book and some tips and trick to try, as I have a really hard time falling asleep. My husband does snore and there was also information about this and what could be causing this, some tips to try to minimize the snoring, etc. Overall this book exceeded my expectations and I do recommend this!

Learned some new tricks in this book. Most of it I already knew but he took time to explain the science and reasoning behind all of it. Did give me a couple of things to try immediately and for the first time since Christmas I slept a sound 7 hours! So read it and it just might help you too.

This book is very helpful. It is like a step by step book filled with good and verifiable information. Not only does this book provide tips, it provides why we need sleep and a lot more good and useful information.

I love this book! Every hack in this book is very short, easy to understand and do. I like switching between hacks to see what works best for me. I have been noticing better sleep progressively each night.

I really like this book. There are some great tips on how to fall asleep & stay asleep. The hacks are easy to read & easy to understand. Which is a good thing.

Great book. Full of good ideas. Backed by lots of research. Well organized and easy to read.

GREAT information to help battle no sleep!
