Customer Reviews

A beautiful story of what it would have be like if Trayvon Martin wouldve been able to murder Mr George Zimmerman that fateful night.

A beautiful story that rivals the works of Shakespeare. Apparently I have to write eleven more words for this review.

An impressive and incisive political and social analysis of African American culture and the American political system. Definitely worth a read if you appreciate gonzo black humor or want a very politically incorrect view of current events in novel form.

Amazing book, deep political insight, beautiful story arc, squeezed in some romance, and covered it all in a comedic tone. Slight grammatical errors.
