Customer Reviews

"While the subject matter is by no means light, this moving and honest slice of life will resonate with anyone who has questioned themselves or ever been conflicted in their lives. And let's face it: that is all of us." -- Judith Utz, Teen Vogue
"The self-discovery that follows is utterly fascinating." -- Abraham Riesman, Vulture
"Sheds light on the complicated emotional and mental dynamics involved in lesbian relationships. Her story is an open, honest, and deeply personal look at her struggles to fight back against her eating disorder, stop self-harming, and learn more about her sexuality." -- Ana Valens, The Mary Sue
"A complicated play of gender and sexual identities that Nagata unbinds and sorts through with striking aesthetic aplomb." -- Shea Hennem, The A. V. Club
"...this is a comic that (a) treats sex workers with dignity and agency in a medium which has been historically unkind, (b) addresses very real themes of self-harm in a direct and honest way, and (c) adopts an attitude of complete acceptance of sexuality fluidity." -- Katie Skelly, The Comics Journal
"My Lesbian Experience with Loneliness is one of the most powerful manga I have ever read, and it all comes down to Nagata Kabi's openness and honesty." -- Nik Freeman, Anime News Network
"No question, absolutely, my pick this week is My Lesbian Experience with Loneliness, which was simply one of the best autobiographical manga I've read." -- Sean Gaffney, Manga Bookshelf Kabi Nagata is a manga artist best known for her autobiographical comic, My Lesbian Experience with Loneliness.

It's a fun book to read; a very relatable story. It's personal, funny, and adorable. Clean format, and drawings easy on the eyes (simple, cute, smooth progression). I think this kinda book would make a splendid gift. Something you would love to share or pass on to someone once you're done. The punctuality of the shipping was spot on. However, upon opening the parcel, the cover of the book had already a crease on it which was baffling because the rest of the books in it were in perfect condition. Kinda feels as though I had bought a used book on full price. 4 stars otherwise.

One of the most genuine personal things I have ever read, truly great.

Read it in one breath, describe depression and social anxiety very well, it made me cry at some point. Thank you for this western edition

Really wonderful work. A deep, raw look at mental illness, queerness, and how they intersect for the millennial generation. I personally would consider it one of the most important queer literature works of the year, if not the decade. A must-have for...anyone, really.

Intense introspective dialog with ones I'd .. an insight into the mind of a complex personality. Related to the lonely essence

I think this work speaks for itself. If you are looking at reviews, you are considering reading this. Stop considering it and go for it.

Very relatable. Seeing someone around my age that's struggling with identity and mental illness. I highly recommend this book to anyone! 5 stars. 10/10

I smiled and giggled through nearly the whole thing (and welled up with tears a lil' bit too). Great motivational material to kickstart a life of following your passions and being true and loving to yourself!
