Customer Reviews

This is a reprint of a journal that I bought for myself in 1979. It has sweet drawings by JRR Tolkien that illustrate The Hobbit. I never used mine as a journal because I couldn't bear to write on the pages and mar the beauty of the sketches. My daughter likes to journal and likes the Tolkien books even more than I did, so I bought this for her for Christmas. She was thrilled with it. This one has a sturdier binding than the one I had and will last her many years. I think she even plans to write in hers. The pages are blank except for the sketches (not lined). I like this aspect. It gives more freedom when you are journaling to sketch, make diagrams, or write words. The paper is sturdy and worthy of a journal that you intend to keep for many years.

It's adorable for any Tolkien fan. The illustrations are lovely and charming, though I do wish it was lined. I love the discovery however of each new page. I'm really glad I got this.

My husband writes a lot and he is a huge fan so he started using it to take notes at church. Sure enough it got some attention, a really good purchase.

Beautiful! You almost don't want to write on it...

My daughter said she really liked receiving this book as a gift. She likes the pictures of the characters in this book.

nice book to write in cool pictures

Disappointing. (And that's coming from a number One Frodo fan!)
