Customer Reviews

“No anaesthesia department should be without a copy.” •British Journal of Anaesthesia, review of the last edition. "This edition has expanded the number of chapters and uses color-coded sections for easy navigation. The wide range of specialists brings impressive breadth and depth of expertise...This comprehensive guide to anesthesia for infants and children provides valuable expertise for all clinicians practicing in the field."-- DOODY'S BOOK REVIEW, 5 Stars

Covers all areas well and is up to date. Large book that is well indexed. Good resource book for a pediatric anesthetic department.

Great book for review. Some items in sections are redundant. There are a lot of electronic references, which is annoying when you are studying the book. But, overall current and good

Excellent

great
