Shortly after a breakfast generously supplied with pancakes, Nate the Great got an urgent call from Annie. "I lost a picture," said Annie. "Can you help me find it?" "Of course," said Nate. "I have found lost balloons, books, slippers, chickens. Even a lost goldfish. Now I, Nate the Great, will find a lost picture." "Oh, good," Annie said. Nate, with the cool detachment of a Sam Spade, immediately plunges into his new and baffling case. Getting all the facts, asking the right questions, narrowing down the suspects. Nate, the boy detective who "likes to work alone," solves the mystery and tracks down the culprit. In the process he also discovers the whereabouts of Super Hex, the missing cat.

Excellent book for 1st-2nd grade!

Seems that boys, especially my 6 year old grandson, loves it. Will get more of the Nate the Great books.

My 5 year old cannot get enough of these books!

I've just started a collection of audiobook CDs for long car rides with my kids, aged 7 and (just) 4 -- this is one of our favorites. The stories are well written, and the narrator is great. This is my favorite of the Nate the Great CDs -- several of the others include collections of practical jokes or tricks to do with household items between stories, not so relevant in a car.

I have a son named Nathan and when he was in school he was Nate the Great. It was a thrill to read Nate the Great to his son. Fun story. I asked him if he knew who Nate was and he said "my daddy". Cool

I sent as gift to my great grand niece and her grandmother-teacher read it to her. She gave it a big thumbs up - said she was attentive and answered all her questions perfectly. I would recommend it as a great book that's not based on the usual animals, but a step up into a different aspect of life.

Reading this with my grandson and he loves it! He is not an avid reader but he asks to read this book!

Sweet story. Not very exciting for a grandchild that's interested in Captain Underpants.
