Customer Reviews

When he woke up, he discovered he had been shot, fallen down into an arroyo, and was alone in a vast landscape. At 14 he had to find the items he needed to survive: shelter, food, and water. The story of discovering what he needed and finding his way home to see if his parents survived was fascinating and humbling. Not many in today's world could accomplish this. I would have given it a 5 star except for the typos. I received this complimentary copy for an honest review.

A young man is wounded and left for dead but due to his upbringing decides that he will make every effort to stay alive using the skills taught to him by his father and return to his family. This is a fast paced novel that is well written and will definitely hold the reader's interest. I highly recommend this author.

You know I don't like these books, that are not books. I feel cheated like where is the rest of it.

I like to read authors whose hero's have a strong moral code Cliff writes that way.

I good reading book from start to finish. In fact to me it was so good I did not want to end.

I have enjoyed reading this book. I have read several books with Viejo in them and have enjoyed them all. I will certainly be looking for more books by this author.
