The 10 book Chronicles of Dragon, by Craig Halloran is a delightful romp through a fantasyland of Men, Elves, Dwarves, orcs goblins and most of all, Dragons. The hero, aptly named "Dragon", is an impulsive, oftentimes petulant man/boy dragon, sets out on a quest, accompanied by an assortment of the races and a couple of wizards. They fight the usual suspects and villains, in a quick-paced, humorous tale, This action packed adventure includes its own "Biffs, bams, pows and zowies" and makes great summer reading fare for adults and kids, alike. As a Summer reading project, have your kids read the complete set and then check out the Darkslayer series, also by Craig Halloran. My 10 and 13 year old boys trade video game time for reading time, daily; that or get out in the hot, Fla sun and play.

I began reading this series as individual books, and when the first five became available as a collection, I just had to have them. I just love the way Craig Halloran develops his story lines, characters, and environments (worlds). From the moment I opened the first book, until I put down the last, I was enthralled and had difficulty putting them down. His portrayal of the transforming human/dragons was done with such finesse that I was able to forgive some of the grammatical mistakes that I found. I just enjoyed the adventures that Nath and Brenwar got into in the first book while Nath was trying to earn his scales. Nath is a dragon that was born human, but can't assume his position until he has proven himself by earning those scales. Brenwar is a friend of Nath's who just happens to be a dwarf. I think if you want to enjoy a good sci-fi fantasy series, and aren't hugely hung up on technicalities, these books would be a great read. I thoroughly enjoyed them.

If you like reading about dragons, dwarves, elves & wizards, you'll absolutely love reading Halloran's "The Chronicles of Dragon!" Craig has done a great job of bringing all these characters to life. A dragon & dwarf are best friends & fight side by side to save other dragons & later to save their country. I've just finished books 1-5 & am getting ready to start book 6. Well worth the purchase & I really think you'll love these books as much as I do. Keep up the awesome writing Craig!

NO POLITICS!! Just a good escape reading series. Has plenty of human /dragon/etc., etc., interactions and interesting situations. The author has woven his scaly tale around the readers.. Read and enjoy!

The Chronicles of Dragon: Special Edition...

This is a terrific series! Very well written, intriguing and fast paced. I totally loved it and will be buying a set to send to my son. If you like dragons, magic, mystery, etc., you will enjoy these books. I highly recommend them as a very good and fun read.

The characters are genuine and likeable. The story is extremely interesting. The story line could probably benefit from an 3rd person point of view as opposed to switching between 3rd and 1st. Overall it was an enjoyable read Intriguing, exciting, fast-paced and many other descriptive adjective that I could name but I think I wait until I read 6-10. You kept me awake many nights reading. Thanks.
