I bought this and some of the others to help encourage my 6 year old to read. He loves superheros and of course TEEN TITANS GO! While the words are somewhat on par with a K/1st grade reading level the actual font was kind of small and the comic style made it hard for him to read. I think when he gets a little bit more use to reading these might work for him but right now they are too much. I thought the stories were super cute though and as an adult obviously I didn't have any problems reading and following along with the comic style. Maybe not for super beginner readers but slight more advanced.

I ordered this book for my seven year old son at his request. He absolutely loves the book and I love that he is enjoying reading quietly. When he finally put the book down after reading 86 pages straight I glanced through it and was impressed. The writing is clever and witty. At one point blue beetle is standing next to The Beatles. I thought that was cute. I will definitely be ordering more of these.

Kid tested, 5 and 7 year old approved.

As a passionate comic book fan, I wanted to find my eight-year-old niece some great starter comics to get her hooked, as well. These books are fantastic. They are extremely well-written, and they use even the villains in such a fun, creative way. The characters are geared toward her age group, and the female uniforms are very age-friendly. She is now begging for the rest of the series for Christmas, and I am happy to oblige.

Art Baltazar comics are the best for young kids. What a great find! My 7yo child loves to read them over and over. We make funny voices for the different characters. It's a great tool for getting your child to enjoy reading.

My 5 year old son is addicted. The only superhero comics I could find that were appropriate for 4 and 5 year olds (no violent or dark themes)

My kids LOVE this series. It's hilarious and completely age appropriate, but the older comic fans will love it, too. We have the whole series; it's great.

Fun little stories...not as interesting as I had hoped but they're cute and my kids enjoy them.
