Customer Reviews

My new favorite co-parenting reference. Thoughtful, thorough, easy access tools provided with compassion and sound insight. Authors Bonnell and Little provide invaluable insight without sexism or patronizing readers. This book provides answers to real world questions by sharing real-world co-parenting scenarios ... a truly valuable tool for today's co-parents. I will recommend it to all of our co-parenting clients.

I am a divorce attorney and this is the best publication out there to guide parents going through a divorce/separation. It is directive, clear, and has a positive message that all parents need to hear and adopt as they shift in to co-parenting their children. This book is well organized and well written. It can be read by anyone, even someone in a high crisis divorce who is not able to process much information. I intend to give it to all my clients as a mandatory read before they make any major decisions about their children.

Somewhat comical. If you get along well enough to do this, why are you divorcing? No good if your partner scores high on the narcissistic tendency scale. This just makes those of us left behind feel like failures.
