This map is very useful to have. I bought this map to use on a trip to Gabon. The downside of this map is that it is kind of old now and it does not show major things like the national parks of Gabon. Nevertheless, it is a good map to have.

This map is better than nothing, but did not show many features. I recommend that the map company use travelers to supply information in a more formal manner.

Great map with sites of interest indicated. Gabon seems to have the better map but Cameroun has 2 nice inserts showing the streets of their main cities.
