Really enjoyed volume 1
Not so thrilled about volume 2
The tone was all over the place, the art wasn't that great, and the stories were forgettable.
I was really disappointed by this volume and hope that vol. 3 is better.
This is also very hard for me to say as i am a huge fan of invader zim

Definitely worth the read if you enjoyed the show. The art style does change from story to story, which takes a bit of getting use to and can be distracting at times. The story is still pretty good.

This is the second tpb collection of the comic based on the former Nickelodeon tv show. The only flaw from the first volume was that there wasn't a gallery of all the beautiful alternate covers included. This is also true in this volume. There are a few pages of bonus stories that I'm not sure were included in the original issues. The art is good and the colors are great. The main problem with this volume is the story quality. Most seemed like a chore to get through and not an entertaining

love the animated series and wanted to collect the comics as they are published arrived on time and undamaged!

Another great volume. I love Invader Zim.

Love it ! its the cutest story with the best style. Recommended for fans. God price for what it is

The art was good for the most part, but these just weren't funny. Jhonen didn't write any of these himself, and his humor is very difficult to imitate.

YES! volume 2 does not disappoint. This series ended to early on nickelodeon but now it lives on in comic books. great read if you like Invader Zim.
