My husband is a country music fan. I know some of the songs, but not all of them. He likes me to play the piano - but i can't sing well enough for him. So it was a disappointment that many of these songs are written for vocal accompaniment. So much so that the melody line is not in the piano part at all. So unless someone is singing, the song does not sound like the song. I am a returning pianist, after not playing for 20 years, so i am building my skills again. Many of these songs were too difficult for me, and would require practice to play smoothly, partly because the keys have 4 or more sharps or flats. If i had a band, and wanted to break out the bass and guitar, keyboard, etc, it would have worked, but not really for solo piano. This was my shortcoming, however, not the books'!

I really enjoy the songs in this book. They are not overly complicated, but are definitely not advanced. I'd say this is perfect for a middle level player. I like that there are a variety of classics as well as newer Christmas songs as well. The book also has guitar chords in case you want to have a little duet.

it was exactly what it said wish there were more like this

Good mix of songs, and the difficulty level was perfect for me, being somewhere in the easy/intermediate area.

There are quite a few oldies, modern and classical pieces in this book. It is for the intermediate player, which works for me being an advanced pianist. I do wish there were a few less classical pieces in the book, but I would definitely buy it again for the oldies and newbies!

This collection of Christmas songs and carols has been just the right thing for me. The arrangements are a medium level which is perfect. They are upbeat and arranged with creativity without being too complex for an intermediate player. I even bought one for my grown daughter who is more advanced than myself, and she likes it. Now we have a familiar book to play out of when we visit each other.

A very nice book although it is not for beginner pianists

This book has both old favorites and new songs from movies like Polar Express & The Grinch. It is written for Intermediate players & is a lot of fun to play. It's one that I bring out every year for Christmas to enjoy.
