Garden Flowers Coloring Book (Dover Nature Coloring Book)

Synopsis

See the beauty that transforms a backyard garden into a kaleidoscope of colors. Forty most important garden flowers – morning glory, hyacinth, delphinium, iris, tulip, peony, marigold, and many others – handsomely drawn by author Stefen Bernath. You provide the colors from your own imagination or observation. Caption for each drawing gives common and scientific names, usual colors, blooming season, whether annual, perennial, or biennial. Each flower is reproduced in natural colors on the covers.

Customer Reviews

Pretty, realistic and easy to color flowers! A+

Wonderful book. The designs are such that they aren't entirely full of tiny little spaces to color. Many have larger areas which make it more relaxing to color. A real nice selection of pictures too. Great price as well! Well worth buying. No bleed over either from 1 page to another. I love this book, the pictures are going to really be beautiful when finished. The only negative on the Dover books is the pictures are back to back so if you wanted to frame any, you would have to choose between sides. An awesome bonus is on the inside covers there are colored versions of each flower picture to give you an idea of the colors to use or what they look like in real life.

I purchased this for something to keep me busy during the winter months here. Upon receiving this wonderful book, I was amazed at the descriptions of each flower at the bottom of the pages. You can actually see what these flowers would look like as they have a comparable likeness of them on the covers, inside and out. You can still decide for yourself the coloring scheme you prefer, but it is nice to see and get an idea of each flower and stem. This book is best used with coloring pencils to give yourself a finer color pattern. I have tried both the crayons and pencils and the pencils give a sharper, clean look to each page. I recommend this to anyone who likes to color or needs to improve and keep going their hands and fingers for their small motor skills.

Bought this for my grandma who is losing some cognitive functions. This company has a whole series of coloring books for adults. She LOVES them. They have nice little stories at the bottom and the scenes are interesting enough to keep her attention. I sent these books with some nice new colored pencils and she has really taken to them! Coloring and doodling can be quite therapeutic and meditative. She also enjoys word search puzzles but this is a nice change of pace, and especially nice when her mind isn't working as well or she isn't feeling well. The whole series of books is highly recommended. Send your grandma a package -- she'll love them! :-)

I love Dover Coloring Books! This one is great! With each picture is included the name of each flower (common and Latin), a physical description, and when it blooms. Each flower is also shown in color on the front and back cover (and inside). Flowers in this book: Bleeding-Heart, Calendula, Carnation, Chrysanthemum, Clematis, Coreopsis, Cosmos, Crocus, Daffodil, Dahlia, Day-Lily, Delphinium, Erigeron, Foxglove, Gaillardia, Gladiolus, Hollyhock, Hyacinth, Iris, Lupine, Marigold, Monkshood, Morning-Glory, Narcissus, Nasturtium, Oriental Poppy, Pansy, Peony, Petunia, Phlox, Portulaca, Primrose, Rose, Salvia, Snapdragon, Sweet Pea, Sweet William, Tritoma, Tulip, and Zinnia.

As a stroke victim, my wife cannot visit our gardens, due to current physical limitations. By coloring flowers from the Garden Flowers coloring book, she can have her garden, and tend it, symbolically. This coloring book contains many of the flowers that she is used to growing, and she derives great pleasure from coloring these prints. Additionally, the coloring provides mental and muscular therapy toward eventually overcoming the effects of the stroke. The pleasure is more than worth the price of this book.

I purchased this book to introduce a friend to the adult coloring hobby. I added a set of pencils. She loved this beautiful floral coloring book and was appreciative of the examples that are featured. She is hooked!

Really nice coloring book got this for an 88 year old they found the images of each page inside the cover very helpful in choosing the right color
