Customer Reviews

'As teacher of German I have found this book plus the activity book an excellent resource for teaching German to my students.' * user * '... an excellent and very appealing book both for use in the class as well as for self-study' * user review *

Paul Coggle is an experienced university teacher of German, who has taught courses from beginner to postgraduate level. He was a pioneer in the development and use of multimedia language learning materials at the University of Kent, and has acted as a Language Consultant for the BBC and the University of Cambridge Language Centre. He is series editor for the Teach Yourself language courses. Heiner Schenke was born in Hannover and is a native speaker of German. He has taught German at university level for many years and is Director of the Institution-wide language programme at the University of Westminster.

MY WIFE IS USING IT

I am a teacher of German. There are a lot of things I don't like. Why, for instance, is there no English to German section in the glossary? I am not convinced, however, that there is a better beginner's book for adults out there.
