Painting Country Gardens In Watercolor, Pen & Ink

Synopsis

Best-selling author Claudia Nice provides all the information artists need to create gorgeous country garden art. She reviews basic watercolor techniques, including glazing and texturing, along with basic pen and ink techniques for producing a variety of line textures. Readers will find valuable step-by-step demonstrations utilizing a variety of media. They'll begin by drawing in pencil, then add watercolor and/or pen and ink. In addition to flowers, Claudia shows how to illustrate a variety of leaves, vines, moss, ferns and other country scene details, including rabbits, dogs, statues, birdbaths, wagon wheels, weathered wood arbors, fences and more.

Customer Reviews

Though there are many books on the painting of flowers, whether in still lifes or natural settings, this is the best recent book on painting the garden itself. Thus, in addition to good chapters on floral painting, the book treats the painting of soils, climbing vines, weathered wood, fountains, statuary, benches, mossy stones, ferns, and even the small animals sometimes found in the garden. Having authored five other art instruction books for this publisher, Nice is well suited to the task, and her choice of watercolor with pen and ink is ideal for the subject. Highly recommended. Just received it today can't wait to look at the book and get started on a project.

This book has lots of great instructions and examples.

Product as described arrived in good shape. Love this book. was all ways checking it out from the library. has good information Ill be able to use.

Claudia gives you all the tools you will need to make your pen & ink become a master piece.. there are a lot of drawing to use for samples so you can see her work and then try it your self.. she is a wonderful teacher and her work shows it

Wonderful book!

I would check this book out at the library all the time! I love the pictures and detailed information. Even if you don't get to use it as a instructional book it is a pleasure just to look at the illustrations. I bought it because I use it so much.

I've purchased several of her books and never been disappointed. Whatever subject you are interested in drawing or painting no matter your level, her hints are great.
