Duane C. Hinders teaches statistics at Foothill College in Los Altos Hills, CA, and has been a grader for the AP Statistics exam. Corey Andreasen teaches mathematics and AP Statistics at Sheboygan North High School in Sheboygan, Wisconsin. DeAnna Krause McDonald teaches mathematics and AP Statistics at University High School in Tucson, Arizona. ã Å

This is between a 3 and 4 star. It does help you study for the AP Stats exam except it doesn't prepare you as much as it should. It covered some topics that my teacher did not cover and goes in depth on topics that weren't needed. Could be better but does include some practice tests to help prepare you for the exam.

Very helpful.

Good review book

My son likes this book.

Statisticis. I don't even have the book, but I know exactly how it's gonna be if they messed up the spelling of the subject they're trying to help teach you. Statisticis. STATISTICIS.
