Cartographia, founded in 1954, is the largest map publishing company in Hungary. Its tourist, city, and road maps, and atlases, cover destinations throughout Europe and other parts of the world. The firm has also produced cartography for well-known map-publishing houses such as Falk, Ravenstein, Hallwag, Freytag Berndt u. Artaria.

We drove over 5000km during our 3 week trip and we would've been lost without this map (our GPS died on our second day there). This was one of two maps we had purchased and the second one was quickly relegated to the suitcase. This map was easier to read, seemed to be more recently updated and the distances were accurate. Some of the smaller roads weren't named but I guess something needs to give when you have an excess of information to display in a limited amount of space. We used this map to get around within South Africa and Swaziland, not just between the major towns but also to fairly remote areas and without this map, we would've been lost.

it's a map, good, not great, lacking lots of detail I would expect
