Synopsis

ISBN 849770092. instructional method.As band directors in the Duncanville Independent School District (SW of Dallas, TX) Richard Williams and Jeff King were continually looking for materials that would help them achieve the musical goals they set for their band students. Like many band directors, they found themselves writing numerous hand-outs covering basic warm-ups, scales, and technical exercises. Over the years they have refined, edited, and organized their classroom materials into Foundations For Superior Performance.This series is designed to help organize the daily rehearsal and to improve the overall performance level of the ensemble. From as little as five minutes a day, to forty-five minutes a day, this series offers the flexibility and options to fit any particular band situation. It also provides the director with the resources to meet each student on his or her own level while challenging them to reach the next level.

Exactly what I was looking forI lost my last one and just needed to replace it because it belonged to the school's music program. We use it every day for warming. It has articulaion exercises, lip-sluring, full band chorals, a fingering chart, scales, and more.

Has helped greatly in performance with fingers.

Lol

I got this book used and it was a good price on so I gave it a shot and purchased it. I am very satisfied on this product because the pages are perfect and the package came two days early. The book was a little wrinkled and had some pencil marks from the previous owner so I erased the pencil marks and the book looks almost brand new. Great buy
