In disc two, track 4 I was listening to a woman named Angie Smith "Living in the Deep." I was disappointed at her disparaging references to Catholicism. I had purchased the CD set as a Christmas gift for my daughter. I just had to share how this saddened me and soured me to the whole series. I was looking for a humorous uplifting devotions for my daughter to listen to while traveling. Not a Christian based resource that I found offensive towards the Catholic faith.

I have listened to the whole thing it is two discs and no skipping. Just PERFECT! Love this devotional it really touched my heart! Made me cry & laugh. It is a great quick devotional, it will grab your attention. Good for in the car for regular trips around town. You might not want to get out of the car. LOL! I promise you will enjoy this if you like any of the women on this cd. My fav is Beth Moore, but this brought some ladies to my attention that I have not even heard but will be looking for now.

This is a great way to commute in to work to ensure you arrive ready to start the day with the right perspective...my three year old asks for the "talking ladies" every morning as we commute in to school/work...I am ever grateful for the women that put these together...I need a CD set for every day of the year!

It was wonderful to get these short devotionals on CD from some of God's greatest women ministry speakers. I will often put them in my CD player and listen before I go to sleep. The words God gives them are powerful and relevant and have been a source of reminders and confidence in my Christian walk. Well worth getting and I appreciated that it was affordable as I have a limited income.

I haven't listened to all of the tracks yet. But so far this cd has really helped me start my days focusing on spiritual things. I was concerned that the brevity of the tracks would make the devotionals watered down. I was wrong. They are powerful and thought provoking. I will be looking for more cds like this one in the future.

Love love loved this CD will be purchasing more by these speakers for sure.. Thank you :)

I love it

Makes you laugh and makes you cry as you listen to the many devotionals - these women are such a testimony of their faith. Have listened to the CDs several times, now sharing with friends.
