She's level-headed and smart, and becomes worried about her partner. There are secrets in Hallie's past of which she is unaware, but after some digging the truth begins to reveal itself, and the two of them find themselves involved in a conspiracy. But in the simmering heat of a blazing summer there are more secrets at play, hidden desires that the two women have hidden from each other. But now, as their partnership is strained, will they finally seize their passion, or will they lose each other?
