Franko Maps Ltd. is known for producing the best travel, dive and snorkel maps, guides and fish cards for the Caribbean and other locations worldwide.

As a dive map, this is not at all useful. You will NOT find the reefs this way. The map is way too small and the locations marked are only approximate. Use local knowledge to find them. The other side, showing "Coral Reef Creatures" is mostly useable if your eyesight is good, though the fish species shown toward the bottom are difficult to discern due to small size and being lost in the busy-ness of the coral types. Also, mine arrived with a sticky label in the lower right corner that was very difficult to remove and obscured some of the species. For $5 and change, it may be worth having for the fish and coral species since you could take it with you in the water. Since the map isn't useful anyway, I would suggest the waterproof pocket guide "Corals & Fishes, Florida, Bahamas & Caribbean" by Idaz & Jerry Greenberg.

We kept this little placard of common fish species in the pocket of the kayak seat and referred to it between dives. IT was very handy for this purpose and we used it more than the audobon guide. A simple guide like this works when the fish species are so distinctly colored as they are in the exumas. Kayaking from exuma to Staniel key we saw:-schoolmaster-blue stripe grunt-great barracuda-southern stingray-yellow stingray-stoplight parrotfish-nassaue grouper-squirrel fish-rock beauty-graysby-porcupine fish-lion fish-yellowtail snapper-queen trigger fish-angelfish-royal gramma basslet-spotted eagle ray-hawksbill turtle-nurse shark Worthless. So small it offers absolutely no value from a dive site level and whole thing is basically worthless in my opinion. I would have sent it back but it would cost me as much to send back as it did to buy it. Don't waste your money.

For some reason I thought these were credit card size but they are much larger. However great quality and love them as welcome gifts for my destination wedding.

excellent quick reference and great memorabilia from your trip

Perfect dive card for your dive log. When it comes to logging dives after a long day in the water, these cards make it easy to locate the dive sites you visited.

nice graphics plan to use on my dive trip this spring
