Kristin Earhart grew up riding horses, pestering her cat, and reading books about amazing animals. These days, she lives with her husband and son in Brooklyn, New York, and writes books of her own. She still loves animals. But now, when she pesters her cat, the surly cat pesters back.

I am a scuba instructor and am always looking for ocean adventure stories for my 8 and 10 year old sons - I thought this was a really fun read and I love all the ocean creature facts they mix in along the way. I plan on getting them the entire series.

My 8 year old son loves reading this series. He really enjoys realistic fiction and I like that he is learning while he is reading. He is almost done with the last book in the series and is searching for something to read while waiting for Next Ranger in Time to get released and another book from this series to be published. I would definitely recommend this series as a mother and a teacher.

Bought this for my grandson's birthday and he loves the series of books. He has seven I can read most of it himself

My 9 year old has always struggled with reading and has a hard time picking books that he can comfortably read. I am always buying him books to try and this one was a winner. I will be buying him more of this series because he's a nature lover loves learning about nature and animals.

GREAT!

My 7-year-old and I read a chapter of this book every night until we finished it. He loves this entire series and can't wait to read the books at bed time. I recommend this book for a boy or girl to read.

Our 11 year old loves them and to be honest I've actually enjoyed them as well. We have made it a bed time routine to read them together
