Customer Reviews

This is a cute book and a good conversation piece to help introduce your children to the armor of God. However, the language differs from the armor that I'm used to and is a little confusing, especially for kids. I would still recommend this but make sure you know your stuff and don't expect this book to teach your child for you.

This is a nice book that compares the Armor of God to the "armor" we wear while riding a bike. This version seems to be best geared to 2-3 year old children -- it was just a little too "young" for our 4 1/2 year old.

excellent quality , well -written good story

Thanks

its shorter than I hoped, but good!

Putting God's word in my grandson's heart, to go along with the 'armor' costume.

Super cute book. Gives my kids another way to relate to the Armor of God. It's short and to the point. Gives them a way to understand the different pieces better. Have recommended this book to several friends.
